Autumn 2 Overarching Theme:
Seasons and Celebrations

This half term our overarching theme is seasons and celebrations. We are excited to learn about Autumn and Winter; Diwali, Bonfire Night, Christmas, and more!

What are we learning this week

Phonics

Sounds

Red Words - he is she

Maths,

This week we are continuing with our composition work but will also be looking at number bonds within five!

Home Challenge

We learnt about Guy Fawkes Night and Diwali last week, can you try and spot any fireworks in the sky and talk about the sounds they make and the colours you see.

Message from Mrs Cutting and Miss Cunningham

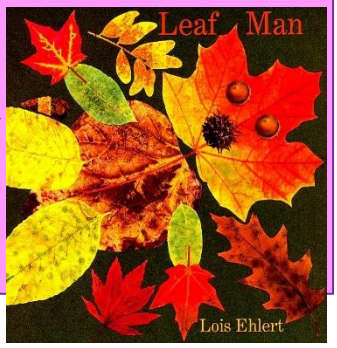

We had a great first week back last week. We have particularly enjoyed seeing creations children have made at home!

Well done to everyone getting back to reading, keep recording what you have read so you can get those reading rewards!

A2W2 - Leafman

This week we are exploring the beautifully illustrated book, Leafman, by Lois Ehlert.

Stars of the Week

Apple

A2W1 - Tommy-Leigh, for being super helpful at tidy up time all week. Well done!

Cherry

A2W1 - Phelix, for your hard work in phonics and remembering the alphabet chant!

Notices

PE - we are likely to be outside each week while the weather is still dry so it may help for children to bring a hat and gloves on these days!

Parent café - Friday 13th November at 2:30pm (apologises for the wrong information on the previous hook/letter!).

FFT reading books - your child may begin bringing home more than one phonics FFT book home each week. One will be the book we read together as a class the previous week while the other will be a previously seen book where your child can practise reading words with previously taught sounds. Please keep all books in the plastic wallet.
